

TWO OHIO USBC WBA MEMBERS RECOGNIZED

Two members of the Ohio USBC WBA were each recognized when they participated in their 50th Ohio USBC WBA Championship Tournament during the past tournament in Toledo.

Gladys DeMichael of the Greater Dayton USBC WBA is 85 years old and has been bowling since 1942. She also participates in the USBC Women's Championship Tournament. She said "50 years sounds like a lot of years but for my age it feels good that I can still participate. I plan on continuing with my league and participating in the state and national tournaments as long as I am able." Her final 2007-08 average was 118 and she had a high series of 429.

Lois Caylor, Greater Dayton USBC WBA was also recognized for participating in her 50th Ohio USBC WBA Championship Tournament. Lois is no stranger to any bowler who has participated in the championship tournament over the past 24 years. She has served as Tournament Site Manager for the Doubles/Singles Events for the past 19 years since 1990. Lois also worked the tournament several weekends each year from 1984 through 1989. Lois currently bowls in one league. Lois is a former Treasurer and Vice President of the Ohio WBA. She is currently a Member Emerita and Life Member of the Ohio USBC WBA.
